LAFCU DONATES $1,000 TO EVERETT HIGH SCHOOL BAND

LANSING, Mich. –
LAFCU has donated $1,000 to the Lansing Everett High School Band as part of the credit union's sponsorship of the Lansing Regional Chamber of Commerce annual dinner. In attendance at the ceremonial check presentation are Everett High School students, Band Director Penny Filonczuk and Principal Norman Gear, Ph.D., LAFCU Vice President of Community and Business Development Kelli A. Ellsworth-Etchison, and Lansing Regional Chamber of Commerce President & CEO Tim Daman.

“The chamber’s annual band sponsorship is among our favorite community programs,” said Ellsworth-Etchison. “We are extremely pleased to provide funds to help support such quality high school programs.”

About LAFCU

Chartered in 1936, LAFCU is proud to be mid-Michigan’s credit union, serving the counties of Barry, Calhoun, Clinton, Eaton, Gratiot, Ingham, Ionia, Jackson, Livingston, Montcalm and Shiawassee. A recipient of the Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Award, LAFCU takes pride in bringing value to the financial lives of its members, neighbors, families and community. Offering a comprehensive range of personal and business financial products, LAFCU provides services that include checking and savings accounts, auto and mortgage lending, business accounts and business lending. LAFCU serves 55,000 members, holds more than $580 million in assets, and maintains eight locations throughout Greater Lansing and Shiawassee County. Anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in its designated counties is eligible to join. Members enjoy benefits, such as lower interest rates on loans, higher yields on savings, insurance discounts, preferred seating for LAFCU-sponsored events, and access to 28,000 surcharge-free ATMs through the CO-OP ATM network. LAFCU supports and enriches mid-Michigan by donating funds and employee volunteer hours to many organizations and causes.
