“I was at home and my phone rang, and it was LAFCU telling me I had won the grand prize,” said Reeves. “I was absolutely in shock and just thrilled. I will be donating the $1,936 to Flight Angels, which is an organization based in Puerto Rico that I’m very passionate about. We take in abandoned, unwanted animals, rehabilitate them, and relocate them from the island to the mainland.”

LAFCU staff were so touched by Jeffrey’s generosity and his passion for the Flight Angels mission that the credit union pledged to donate funds to have 50 animals transported from Puerto Rico.
