LAFCU wins 5 national marketing awards

LANSING, Mich. — LAFCU has won five marketing awards in the 17th Annual Service Industry Advertising Awards competition, with two entries winning the top awards in their categories.

The recognition is for advertising materials promoting LAFCU’s jumbo CD and vertically designed credit cards, and for a public relations campaign promoting financial resources for striking UAW members and others negatively impacted by the 2019 GM strike, such as those laid off by auto suppliers.

The advertising work was produced in partnership with Harvest Creative Services, Lansing; the public relations project was executed in partnership with Publicom, Okemos.

“In offering quality financial products to our members statewide, we are also competing with national entities,” said Kelli Ellsworth Etchison, LAFCU chief marketing officer. “Our goal is always to represent LAFCU as a cutting-edge financial organization. This SIAA recognition is validation that our marketing is competitive on a national scale.”

Entries earning gold awards and their SIAA categories are:

The Go Vertical TV video uses a humorous approach to draw attention to the enhanced benefits of LAFCU’s vertically designed credit cards.

The Here to Help PR campaign promoted LAFCU’s financial resources for striking UAW members through extensive media coverage and member communications.
