Kilpatrick joins LAFCU as payroll and benefits specialist

LANSING, Mich. — LAFCU recently announced that Rebekah “Becky” Kilpatrick has joined the credit union as payroll and benefits specialist.

In her new position, Kilpatrick is responsible for processing payroll, maintaining employee records, and managing employee benefits such as health care and retirement.

“Becky brings extensive experience in payroll accounting to LAFCU,” said Sharon Gillison, LAFCU senior vice president-human resources. “Her passionate interest in human resources will be a great benefit for our organization.”

Kilpatrick, a St. Johns resident, came to LAFCU from Partners Book Distributing Inc. where she served as human resources/payroll manager since 1998. She is currently working toward the Senior Certified Professional designation from the Society for Human Resources Management. She is a graduate of St. Johns High School.
