LAFCU 2016 fundraising efforts net more than $20,000 for United Way

LANSING, Mich. — LAFCU recently presented the Capital Area United Way with a check for more than $20,000 in donations raised and pledged during 2016. It's a 12 percent increase over the previous year.

Throughout 2016, LAFCU employees held a variety of events to earn money for the United Way, including a book sale ($475), dress down days ($626), a live auction ($1,046), an in-house, online auction ($1,331), a sports auction ($295), cookbook sales ($580), candy grams ($545), a loose change war ($416), and a pallet party ($220). Employee pledge donations and a corporate donation make up the balance of the funds raised.

“Supporting our local community through giving to the United Way is a year-long endeavor for LAFCU employees,” said Pat Spyke, LAFCU CEO. “It exemplifies their dedication to the betterment of their communities, and it is especially rewarding to present the year-end check during this season of good will.”
