LAFCU's community-minded Breakfast with Santa treats 230+

LANSING, Mich. — More than 230 children and their families enjoyed Breakfast with Santa Saturday, Dec. 1, at LAFCU's West Lansing Branch/headquarters, Lansing.

The inaugural event was free and open to the public as a community service organized by LAFCU.

community by offering a fun and festive event the whole family could enjoy without worrying about the cost. It was magical to see the happy faces of all the children who attended.”

In addition to enjoying a free breakfast with Santa, families took photos with Santa, made some holiday crafts and decorated cookies.
